She said: "I can't rest forgotten"
I beg you to forgive
I beg you to forgive me
I beg you for forgiveness

Send me angels of light I'll see you in a ray of light Send me demons of night
I'll see you in a sea of life
Oh...
Oh... Night is falling Night is falling Light has fallen Life is calling, Oh...

..I'll show you a way between dark & light I'll show you a path between wrong & right I'll save you from the black ocean of night You won't have to pray for time to leave your beauty untouched but if I can save you from your fate I can't save you from yourself..

▶ 100 Years Time

..Now darkness falls
an eternity folds I want to watch you do the things you like to do until kingdom come..

Hey.. Child of Silence Hey.. child of Innocence who shall you become someone right or someone wrong in the circus of your life ?

In a hundred years time..
In a hundred years time..
That fear of death
that damages our soul

and corrupts innocence Watch them rise at daylight, they blaze like insects on a flame why should we ever burn or be without return ?

Watch us rise at moonlight, we prey on shadows of the night Oh.. Feel how we become until kingdom come
I've been crossing this night for a thousand years merely avoiding these questions
for a thousand times was I right or was I wrong to breed you forever young I've been thinking over that night
for a thousand times
I've been questioning our fate for those thousand years Oh what should we become until our kingdom comes ?

In a thousand years time..
In a thousand years time..
In a thousand years time..

In a hundred years time..
In a hundred years time..
That fear of death

In a 100 Years Time..
In a 100 Years Time..
In a 100 Years Time..

▶ Dark and Light

all voices
call my names
world war ace shot down in flames rising up a soccer star, who's talking on the phone I don't know
I'm calling you
from heaven or hell I can't tell

all voices
call my names
chess master
sung with praise waking up 'Goth' superstar, who's waiting by the phone
I don't know
I'm calling you
pieces get confused
I can't tell
who I am

Dark and Light/ Dark and Light
Dark and Light/ Darkness..
Darkness

I never thought I wouldn't see the sun rise again

coming in to empty places faces blur voices merge, I'm shinning like a burning star where I'm leading to
I don't know
I'm calling you

in heaven or hell
I can't tell

walking through empty houses
howls of fear throughout the Ages lovers burn like shooting stars where I'm leading you
I don't know
I'm calling you
Darkness' if make you shine
I can't tell
What we are
.. Darkness... Darkness

Dark and Light/ Dark and Light
Dark and Light/ Darkness..
Darkness
I never thought
I wouldn't see
the sun rise again

.. Darkness... Dawn..

▶ A Paradise Lost

I was dreaming between Graces and Arts bewitched by beauty I fell for her call there I met my demon, and now my paradise's lost

I've been roaming from twilight to dawn one of a kind shadowed by the Fall preying on devils finding no mercy at all
I've been roaming from twilight to dawn
haunting alleys and palaces halls I've seen so many things none would believe
