Oh...I saw demons burn in the lights of day
Oh...I heard angels cry in the night Oh...I dreamt a music that came from the dawn of times
Oh...I touched the body of a paradise lost

I've been riding from twilight to dawn living between darkness and splendours now I'm standing bloody with your paradise lost
I've been riding from twilight to dawn watching the world for your breath to call will you (still) be mine when my eternity's gone

times
You'll see demons burn in the lights of day...
You'll hear angels cry in the night...
You'll dream a music that comes from the dawn of times...
You'll touch the body of a paradise lost...

► Children of Millenniums
...I've seen worlds that you wouldn't believe coming down through the ages just to be here with you...

I've seen lives full of beauty and rage from the Battles of Dawn to the Venetian grace I've seen times of such fury and faith when the learned loved in fear and my kind spread like death

I've seen loves that would never deny a glimpse at eternity till their time came to fly

Come to me
we are the Children of Millenniums
Come to me
we are the Legions of Eternity
Come to me
we are the Hunters of Loneliness

I've seen the Plague whirl like a nightmare in rags haunting laments and flames the hell of loss and regrets I've seen heavens in delightful embraces such delicate minds, that sighed like angels when cut
...I've seen night change into the day where I'm losing my strength but it's the price to pay...
I've seen your whole world fall and slip away and you losing your faith in this fools shadow-play

Come to me
Come to me
we are the Legions of Eternity
Come to me
Come to me
we are the Children of Millenniums
Come to me

to breed you forever young I've been thinking over this night for a thousand times I've been questioning our fate for those thousand years Oh.. Where do we belong until our kingdom comes?

I'm calling/ I'm Calling

...in this house of hours where eternity glows I want to take you There where darkness unfolds and the fierce night calls and dark angels come..

They let you bleed here with no life inside you They let you die here with no hope inside you where love's forever frozen and angels forever fallen They let you lie here with no ghost inside of you They let me pray here with no God inside of me Oh.. What shall we become until our kingdom comes?

I'm calling/ I'm Calling

..when darkness unfolds as eternity goes I want to watch you do the things you like to do oh when your dreams start to hold until my kingdom comes..

I'm calling/ I'm Calling

Night calling/ Night Calling Night Call

► Angels of Light

..For all the things unsaid and all the things undone For all the things unheard and all the things unseen

I beg you to forgive
I beg you to forgive me

She said: "I can't burn in flames of a love that's so sincere am I so afraid to die?"
She said: "I can't leave unforgiven"
I beg you to forgive
I beg you to forgive me
I beg you for forgiveness

Send me angels of light I'll see you in a ray of light Send me demons of night
I'll see you in a sea of lives
Oh...

..For all the things untouched and all the things unnamed For all the things unloved and all the things unchanged
I beg you to forgive me

She said: "Save me from my fate of a life that comes to wane co's I'm so afraid to die"
