

Recto 2

don't let their love deceive us don't let their blood soften us they're so pure and enlightened don't let their ghosts wake with us don't let their prayers fill our souls we're so worn and darkened

I keep a track of what darkened my heart
I keep a track of what darkened the skies
I keep a track of what darkened the sun
I keep a track of what darkened my soul
...darkened my hope
...poisoned my blood
I keep a track of what blackened your heart don't let their eyes stare at us don't let their bodies abuse us we're so bold and unforgiven don't let their charms enslave us don't let their hands crawl on us we're so cold and stiffened don't let their youth retain us don't let their moaning haunt our sleep we're so torn and darkened

I keep a track of what darkened my heart
I keep a track of what darkened the skies
I keep a track of what darkened the sun
I keep a track of what darkened my soul
...darkened my hope
...poisoned my love
I keep a track of what blackened your heart

▶ Calling The Furies

Everything must go
Everything must go
the gardens and the palazzo the great doors and the park alleys the corridors and the galleries the furniture and the clothing

Everything must go
Everything must go
the paintings and the tapestries the statues and the galleries and all the buildings and the livings Everything must go...
Calling the Furies...

Everything must go
Everything must go
the stories and the heroes the real lives and the shadows the desires and the pleasure gloves the heartbeats and the blood flows

Everything must go
Everything must go
the perfume of roses in the morning dew the scent of cut grass in the evening mist the same story goes for me and you Everything must go

Calling the Furies...
Calling the Furies...

I'll be missing so many things

▶ Until Kingdom Come
... Now darkness tells an eternity calls I watch the fading lights I feel the blinding night
waiting for lives to call.

I've been crossing this night for a thousand years nearly avoiding these questions for a thousand times was I right or was I wrong

Come to me
you was lost and now you found Me

..you will never need of anything anymore

▶ Redemption

Oh Lord save
me, body and soul

I've been living
through the Centuries
and all Centuries
just show the same I've been running through the Countries
and all the Cities
just slip the same I've been haunting
all kind of creatures
and all haunted just fear the same I've been founding
so many beliefs
and all beliefs
just say the same

there's no heaven
or hell before us
no religion
to help us now
there's no heaven
or hell before us
no Redemption
to save our souls

I've been living
just die the same I've been roaming

through the Countries
just sleep the same I've been hunting
all kind of creatures
and all hunted just pray the same I've been facing
and all beliefs, they just lie the same

... there's no heaven
or hell before us
no expectations
just run wild

Oh how I questioned their convictions
no religion
would help them then
there's no heaven
or hell before us
no Redemption
to save us now
there's no heaven
or hell before us
no Absolution could save our souls

Oh Lord save
me, body and soul.

▶ Love beyond Life

the remains of the night will leave your skin as silk your hair like fields of wheat and eyes like opened skies

I'll chase you till the end of life
